Location:

Shaldon and Ringmore are situated on the South banks of the Teign Estuary and are well-regarded with an active community and popular year-round destination with locals and tourists alike. The Shipwrights is the only public house in Ringmore itself, situated within a nominated conservation area on Verbena Terrace with its own access onto the estuary pathway.

Description:

The Shipwrights Arms is a small but charming public house situated within Ringmore, Shaldon. The village is on Southern banks of the river Teign and the venue will attract customers from the immediate vicinity and those that use the nearby waterside parks and visit the area. Set out over three floors with ground floor trade areas and an enclosed beer garden. The kitchen is at first floor with a possible flatlet and further accommodation on the floor above. The venue is ideally suited to a working couple with occasional staff as the business grows. It has a charm and appeal for anyone looking for a live/work opportunity in a sought after estuary location. Please note that there is no trade inventory and applications will need to factor refurbishment into their business plan.

Accommodation:

All areas are approximate and measured in accordance with the RICS Property Measurement (2nd Edition) on a net / gross internal basis.
